Good morning Theresa,

Thanks for talking with me over the phone this morning. We are happy to make accommodations given the uncertainty of the impending hurricane heading RTP- way at the end of the week. I moved our meeting hold to September 25, 10:30-12p as we discussed and we will tentatively plan to do this over the phone. We can work out logistics for video if you plan to visit HQ. If anything further changes between now and then we can roll with it. If AAPCA does rescheduled and you are down RTP way, we can do an in-person follow up as well. Let's stay in touch.

We look forward to talking with you,

Amy

Subject: Reschedule request for Pugh (Sept 18- storm possible)

Dear Amy, Nick, and Clint

I understand that the AAPCA meeting will likely be moved next week due to the storm (or possibility that the local hotels will be used to house lineworker crews, FEMA staff, & insurance companies even if RTP area is unharmed in order to serve the coast with 3 storms coming. (I offer this speculation based upon working for utilities).

I would like to request moving our meeting to the last week of Sept or early Oct. due to concerns here with flooding in Alexandria where my own house has taken in water twice in the last 7 weeks.

I would also like to study the reconsideration proposal on 0000a to merit the time from all of you. I will read it tomorrow.

Might we move this until week of October 10-12? If not, assuming we are all able to work on Sept 18- I could send slides and present via conference call- or go to a meeting room at DC headquarters with camera.

I am sorry to request postponing. I do want to meet with you.

On a personal note, I hope NC and SC don't get hammered. I wish all of you a safe week ahead. Uuggghh.

Thank you,
